

Quick Quotes (Dwelling Fire)

To complete a Quick Quote, sign into the system.

Click 'Policy' from the menu on the right, then select Create DF Quote.

This screenshot shows the main interface of the OFPA Quick Quotes system. On the left is a vertical navigation menu with categories: Claims, Policy (selected), Reports, System Configuration, and Security. Under the 'Policy' category, options include 'Create DF Quote', 'Create DF Application', 'Create CP Quote', 'Create CP Application', 'Create CP Renewal Rollover', 'Create FP Quote', 'Create FP Application', 'Create FP Renewal Rollover', 'Pending Quotes', and 'Policy Search'. The main content area is divided into three sections: 'Policy' with fields for Quote Number, Insured Name, and Policy Number; 'Billing' with an Account Number field; and 'Claims' with fields for Claim Number, Date Of Loss, and a search bar. Below the search bar is a table with columns 'Pending Items' and 'Count', showing 'Claim dispatched' with a count of 2. A 'Refresh' button is next to the table.

Enter the Effective Date requested.

This screenshot shows the 'Quote Details' screen for quote QD3645660, with a term from 11/12/2025 to 11/12/2026. The interface includes tabs for Insured, Location, Dwelling, Pricing, and Reports. Fields for Effective Date (11/12/2025), Expiration Date (11/12/2026), and Policy Term (12 Month) are visible. A 'Producer' dropdown is set to 'Select Agent...'. Below these are sections for 'Primary Insured' and 'Secondary Insured'. The 'Primary Insured' section shows 'Insured Type' as 'Individual'. A modal window titled 'Effective Date' is open, showing a date selection field (highlighted in yellow) and a 'Confirm' button. The modal also has a 'Please Select...' dropdown for 'Legal Entity'.

Mandatory fields are noted in yellow.

The system verifies that the mailing and risk location address is correctly entered. If the system is unable to verify the address, it needs to be done manually by clicking ‘Verify Address’.
